

The Curse of Canaan

By Pastor Eli James

Introduction

One of the least understood stories of the Old Testament is the story of Canaan and his descendants, the Canaanites. As is commonly the case with the racial and ethnic differences reported in the Bible, modern commentators tend to gloss over these differences as if they did/do not matter. But these differences absolutely mattered to Yahweh, our Father, and to Canaan's kinsmen, those of the nations of Ham, Shem and Japheth. And it matters to us, the Israelite descendants of the House of Jacob. Even the most universalistic interpreters of Scripture concede that the God of the Old Testament, Yahweh, was a jealous God, one who had a particular interest in a peculiar people, Israel.

From this perspective, the Bible must be understood as the spiritual, physical, and moral history of the Adamic Israelites and their descendants. (Gen. 5:1.) But it is just as important to understand the history of Adamic Israel's enemies. The false religion of Judeo-Christianity either negates or ignores the subject of Israel's enemies. Worse than this, the Judeo-Christians have fallen for Satan's deceptions and actually believe that the Jews are the Israelites of the Bible – this, in spite of the fact that the Jews are well known to be of non-Shemitic stock: of primarily Khazar-Ashkenazi genetics and Edomite-Sephardic genetics. In other words, today's Jews are, in fact, CANAANITES, not Israelites.

In order to overcome or deny the racial separatism taught in the Old Testament, modern scholars and theologians, under Jewish direction, have devised a theology of their own, called "Dispensationalism." This theology teaches two doctrines that cannot be found in the Bible: 1.) the Jews were or are g-d's chosen people and 2.) these "chosen" people, because of their failure to accept Jesus Christ as the Messiah, were replaced by the "Church".

This false theology has done incredible harm to understanding Scripture. Contrary to this false dichotomy, the Old Testament teaches that there are two main groups of people: Israelites and Canaanites, and that these two groups were to be perpetually at war with each other until the Judgment Day. (Gen. 3:15.) These Canaanites are still with us today, but they are hiding their true identity under an assumed name. (Ezek. 35:5, 36:5.) Can you guess what name these Canaanites have assumed? They have named their perpetual warfare state after their enemies, whom they are impersonating. The Judeo-Christian world is simply too deluded by its own theology to see reality, which is that the Zionist State is the rebirth of Babylon, under the direction of the Edomites and Canaanites of the Old Testament, who are today known as Jews.

Until you understand that the so-called State of “Israel” is actually a nation of Canaanites, you will not understand the Bible.

Who Was Canaan?

Genesis, Chapter 9 tells of the episode of Noah’s drunkenness. Verse 22 states, “And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.” The two brothers went into the tent, carrying a blanket and walking backwards, so that they would not see the nakedness of their father also.

Verses 24 - 26: “And Noah awoke from his wine, AND KNEW WHAT HIS YOUNGER SON HAD DONE TO HIM, and he said ‘Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be to his brethren.’ And he said, ‘Blessed be Yahweh Elohim of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.’”

There is a lot more contained in these three verses than most Bible scholars care to admit. Let’s take a closer look.

First of all, why would Noah curse Ham’s son, Canaan, for something that Ham had done? All we are told is that Ham “saw the nakedness of his father.” Secondly, Verse 24 gives the impression that this curse took place immediately after he awoke from his drunkenness. But this is illogical. Why would Noah curse his grandson (Canaan was Ham’s son), who had to have been born much later, for something done by Ham? I think there was a period of about nine months between the “nakedness” and the “curse.” This story has caused much confusion among Bible scholars, even causing some to speculate that it was Canaan who was the “offender,” not Ham. Concerning this drunkenness episode, the entry in the Interpreter’s Dictionary of the Bible goes so far as to say that this event never actually happened; rather, it is a mythological story about the discovery or invention of wine! (Vol. III, p. 555.) I laughed out loud when I read this nonsense. I kid you not! That’s what the Interpreter’s Dictionary actually says!! As usual, the orthodox scholars have it wrong. The Bible clearly says that it was Ham who saw the “nakedness of his father.” Is there more to this expression than meets the eye? When in doubt, check the idioms.

Levitcus 18, verses 6 through 18, covers the subject of incest. Of particular interest is verse 7, which says this: "You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother."

Here, we have a direct correspondence between the nakedness of the father and the nakedness of the mother. We have to realize that in the early days of national Israel, the wife was considered to be the property of the husband. (Ah! The good old days! Sigh!) Indeed, it is still so in much of the world today. It is only in the Christian West where women have been granted voting rights and equal access to education. Elsewhere, women are still considered to be the property and playthings of men. Idiomatically, since the wife belonged to the husband, her nakedness was his nakedness as well, because she belonged to him, and no one else was allowed to uncover it. In those days, the only reason an Adamite woman would have to uncover herself was for a bath, elimination or sex. We must also consider the fact that this cannot be just an episode of voyeurism, because the guilty party would have been Ham, not Canaan. We have to come up with a good reason for why it was Canaan, not Ham, who was cursed.

Some critics of the Bible have suggested that this episode means that Ham had had a homosexual relationship with his Father, Noah; but that is out of the question. In their zeal to disrespect or scoff at the Bible, they forget that homosexual encounters do not produce offspring! The fact is that it was Canaan who was cursed, not Ham. Ham would have not just been cursed, he would have been executed on the spot had he raped his father!!! Besides, Noah was a law-abiding man, and homosexuality was/is not tolerated by Yahweh's Law. (Levitcus 18:22.)

An article from www.leithart.com, entitled "Noah's Nakedness," has this to say about this episode:

"1.) The language of 'uncover nakedness' is not used in Leviticus to describe homosexual incest but heterosexual incest. 2.) Specifically, the 'nakedness of the father' is identified with the 'nakedness of the mother.' 3.) If this is about Ham's incestuous sex with his mother, the emphasis on Canaan comes clear. Canaan is, on this interpretation, the product of the incestuous union, as Moab and Ammon are the product of Lot and his daughters. That is why Canaan is cursed, and why the text consistently identifies Ham as the 'father of Canaan.' ...4.) The maternal incest interpretation better shows the connections of Gen. 9 with Gen. 6, 19, Lev. 18 and 20."

Bob Enyart, in an article entitled "Why Was Canaan Cursed?" has this to say about Biblical idioms:

"As all authors and peoples do, Moses and the Jews [Sic. Israelites] used figures of speech. Some of the Bible's figures of speech are euphemisms that promote modesty. For example, instead of saying that Adam had sexual intercourse with Eve, the Bible more politely says that 'Adam knew his wife Eve, and she conceived'...The reader who misses these common figures of speech will misunderstand the plain meaning of various passages."

He then goes on to quote Leviticus, 20:11, which states:

"The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness."

Although, it is not hinted in the Bible, some scholars think that the story is about Ham trying to assume authority over Noah, by sleeping with his mother. If that is true, then I think Noah would have highly resented this, and probably would have cursed Ham as well. The account is too brief to say much more, except that it is possible that Ham was just as drunk as Noah and his wife. Could Ham have been so drunk that he mistook his mother for another? Stranger things have happened!! -- not in MY family! I hope!!

Suffice it to say that Leviticus 18:7 and 20:11 give us sufficient cause to suspect a case of incest, and that is why it is Canaan, not Ham, who is cursed. Canaan would have been the innocent victim of such an act; and since the law does not allow innocents to be killed, Canaan lived on and started a family of his own.

What about Ham? Having lain with his own mother while either she or both of them were drunk, this fact could not have set well with Noah. Did Noah forgive him or not? I think the Book of Jubilees answers this question:

"And Ham knew that his father had cursed his youngest son, and he became displeased with him [Noah] because he had cursed his son, and he separated himself from his father, he and his sons with him, Chush and Meshrem and Pud and Canaan." (Jub. 7:11.)

So, Ham and his sons departed from the company of his father. The next question is: What kind of family did Canaan beget?

The Canaanites As a People

The full curse of Canaan (Gen. 9:25-27) says this: "And he said, 'Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.' And he said, 'Blessed be Yahweh Elohim of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.' God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem and Canaan shall be his servant."

The immediate suggestion is that Canaan, for some important reason, would not or could not aspire to the greatness of his brethren. If he was indeed the product of incest, he could not be a patriarch of the Holy Seed. For the same reason, Ammon and Moab, the sons of Lot by incest (Gen. 19:32), could not be patriarchal leaders of Adam either. Therefore, these three males, Ammon, Moab and Canaan, although genetically Adamic Israelites, could not assume the role of patriarch or priest. This was out of the question, according to Yahweh's Law, which forbids incest (Lev. 18:6). Therefore, if Canaan had ambitions to leadership, he would have to go elsewhere to get the respect and obeisance he could not get from his own people.

(By the way, Judaism permits incest, and this is just more proof that Judaism is NOT Mosaism. "Pederasty with a child below nine years of age is not deemed as pederasty." Babylonian Talmud, Sanhedrin 54b. And this article demonstrates how common sexual abuse of children is among Hasidic rabbis: <http://religiouschildabuse.blogspot.com/2009/02/abuse-scandal-plagues-hasidic-jews-in.html>)

Another consideration of incest is the fact that children born of incest often have dramatic birth defects; and Jews have the highest rate of birth defects of any ethnic group, from Tay-Sachs disease to schizophrenia. Probably the most famous case of incest was that of Tolouse Lautrec, the French painter. His lower body was terribly deformed, his legs practically useless. Despite his talent as a painter, his low self-esteem, due to his deformity, led him into a life of degeneracy. He not only painted portraits of Parisian whores, he utilized their services and died of syphilis at the age of 37. (Most of his biographers omit the fact that his parents were "kissin' cousins" who should not have gone beyond the kissing stage in their relationship!!!! He did indeed fall and break his legs at age twelve, but this was due to his already deformed legs.)

Canaan Leaves His Brethren

Genesis, Chapter 10 gives us the details of Noah's descendants. Verse 6 gives us the names of the sons of Ham: "Cush and Mizraim, and Phut and Canaan." From these sons, great nations, such as Egypt, Ethiopia, Assyria and Babylon emerged. But Canaan was a special case. On him was placed a curse. The nature of this curse must be thoroughly examined in order to appreciate who the Canaanites were and are.

Verses 15-19 give us the descendants of Canaan. Note the names very carefully: Sidon (the father of the Sidonians); Heth (the father of the Hittites). These two tribes are directly descended from Canaan himself. The other tribes are the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgasites, Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. We are also told that the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were within Canaanite territory. Sodom and Gomorrah were, of course, known for their sexual deviancy! The first six clans or tribes were later to become the bitter enemies of Jacob/Israel. Why? What was the reason for the animosity between Canaan's descendants and the Shemitic Hebrew Israelites?

Note, first of all, that these Canaanites are not descendants of Shem. Rather, they came through Ham, Shem's brother. The Canaanites are NOT Shemites. They began as Hamites. The question is, were they pure Hamites or did they miscegenate with the Kenites and other non-Adamites of Gen. 15:18-21?

Bob Enyart, in his article quoted above, summarizes the situation:

"Genesis Nine records that Ham saw Noah's nakedness, and as a result, cursed his grandson Canaan. Then Canaan went on to become the patriarch of Israel's long-standing enemies, the Canaanites. The story seems capricious on the surface, in contrast to so much reasonable history in Genesis. A common biblical figure of speech appears in Canaan's story, and when Christians reread the story understanding this figure, the message of this account becomes compelling...Canaan lived a cursed life because he was conceived by a perverse union. Thus the brief story twice reminds its ancient readers that Ham (not Noah) is the father of Canaan. So Noah cursed Canaan not as an evil spell or hex, but as a warning to others against following in Ham's wicked ways. And readers of Genesis find a clear and reasonable origin for the conflict that lasted for centuries between the Jews [sic. Israelites] and the Canaanites."

Of course, Judeo-Christian scholars do not consider Canaan's later, even greater sin, that of race-mixing with the Kenites, thus starting his own clan, the clan of Canaanites. There can be no doubt that Canaan left his own people and fathered a Cainite, or Kenite [Kenite = "descendant of Cain"] tribe.

Even though the Canaanites bear the name of a Hamite, they are, in fact KENITES, because Canaan simply married into their house. Canaan forsook the clan of Ham and joined the serpent seed in the land that bears his name, Canaan. It is, therefore, more correct to say that the Canaanites are Cainites who assumed the name of Canaan, perhaps as a bragging point to claim Noah as their ancestor. Canaan was an Adamite, but he became a race-traitor. The same thing happened to Jacob's twin brother, Esau, who actually married two Hittite women, but that is a subject for another essay.

The Seedlines Documented

The seedline of Yahshua Messiah is given in Luke, Chapter 3. It clearly shows that Jesus was an Adamite through Noah and Shem. Neither Cain nor Canaan are in that line of descent because neither fathered Adamite children. The Bible is very clear: In order for a child to be considered an Adamite, BOTH PARENTS must be Adamites. No half-breeds are allowed in the congregation of Yahweh (Deut. 23:2).

In brief, the genealogy of Cain and Canaan goes like this: Nachash (who seduced Eve): Cain (who took a wife from the non-Adamic land of Nod): the Kenites: the Canaanites: the Edomites: the Idumeans (from whom the scribes and Pharisees originated), and finally: the Jews. All of these Canaanite tribes carry in their blood the genetic material of Nachash, the "serpent" of Genesis 3. The Book of Enoch says that Eve was seduced by one of Satan's lieutenants. His name was Gadrel. If that account is correct, then the Serpent had a name, Gadrel. What a lucky guy!!! He got to seduce the most beautiful woman who ever lived; and he was the father of a race of "human" devils!!!

Noah's prophecy that Canaan's descendants will be the servants of the Shemites was proven accurate when the Canaanites and Edomites, after having been subdued militarily by Joshua, Saul and David, were hired as servants to the House of David. And throughout history, Israeliite Kings and Queens have hired Jews as economic advisers, lawyers, consultants, astrologers, etc. Indeed, throughout history, Canaan has been the servant of Shem...until very recently.

One extremely significant prophecy is completely overlooked by mainstream Judeo-Christians. After Jacob was blessed by his father, Isaac, Esau, the quintessential whining proto-Jew that he was, came crying to his father, weeping and begging for a blessing. Gen. 27: 30-46:

30And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. 32And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau. 33And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he [Jacob] shall be blessed. 34And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father. 35And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing. 36And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? 37And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son? \ 38And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau [like a wailing rabbi!] lifted up his voice, and wept. 39And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be away from [the words, "AWAY FROM," in the Revised Standard Version, but not in the KJV] the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; 40And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass WHEN THOU SHALT HAVE THE DOMINION, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

These words are a continuation of the curses upon Cain, for whom the ground would not yield its fruit, and upon Canaan, who was cursed by Noah. Note that these curses fall upon the same seedline: Cain: Canaan: Esau, who was renamed Edom. It is well known to all that the Jewish people don't know the first thing about farming, and their Talmud says that farming is the lowliest position that any Jew can occupy. (Yebamoth 63a.)

Note further that Isaac said that Esau's descendants would live by the sword. Indeed they have. For these Edomites and Canaanites have made continuous war against True Israel ever since. In modern times, these descendants of Esau have made continuous war against the House of Jacob; but they have been able to disguise their militarism by using the power of usury to finance mercenary armies. And this is the story of the House of Rothschild, which has made continuous war against the House of True Israel, since they financed the French Revolution in 1789. Since then, these Edomites, although serving the royal Houses of True Israel in Europe, have been plotting and scheming against our people WITH ABANDON, being the disciples of Abbadon, the false accuser of True Israel.

Isaac's prophecy to Esau was fully realized in the year 1948, when these non-Shemitic, non-Israelite, non-Hebrew, non-Adamic, Edomite and Khazar Jews created the bastard State of Israeli, and they have had the dominion over us since that day!!!

40And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

Since only we in Identity understand that the Jews are impostors, posing as Israel, no one else has been able to determine the meaning of this prophecy. To us, the meaning is obvious! Zionism and the Israeli State are the complete fulfillment of Isaac's prophecy to Esau. The Judeo-Christian world, utterly fooled, bewitched, bothered, bewildered and bamboozled by Judaism's false claims to Israelite heritage, literally worship the anti-Christ in the name of the Bible. Just as Eve was beguiled by the "serpent," the Judeo-Christians have been beguiled by Zionism. Only this time, an entire race has been seduced. And this also fulfills the New Testament prophecy that whole world would be deceived the Zionist beast (Rev. 12:9).

The Satanic empire of Zionism was established in the State of "Israel" on May 15, 1948. Since that day, the tables have been turned, and Esau has had the dominion over Jacob-Israel; but that is only a temporary development. The Judgment Day will put an end to Esau's dominion; and the Canaanites will be written out of the Book of Life forever (Zech 14:21, Rev. 20).

Conclusion

The pulpit wolves insist that Yahweh's prohibitions against race-mixing have either been abandoned or were never to be taken seriously. But the entire Bible is about one people, Adamic Israel, remaining racially pure and true to Him. Since the Jewish people are the most mongrelized people on the face of this earth, it is perfectly understandable that their priesthood is behind the doctrine of "diversity," which is nothing other than the deliberate, calculated integration/destruction of the White Race. They know that if they can race-mix True Israel out of existence, then Yahweh's Plan to dethrone, through Adam, the dominion of the Fallen Angels here on earth will have been defeated. We can't let the Jewish-Zionist genocidal war against the White Race succeed. We must re-awaken the racial consciousness of our people, Israel.

The evil genius of this counter-plan by Satan can only be comprehended when we realize that the Jews have been impersonating True Israel, so that they can proclaim themselves to be "g-d's chosen people," and thus the "highest authority" on the interpretation of the Bible. The sheeple of Judeo-Christianity have been slavishly following this false gospel, since the Jews started promoting it through their false priests, CI Scofield, the Dispensationalists, the Evangelicals, the televangelists and other priests-for-hire, like John Hagee, who are nothing other than modern day race-traitors, just like Canaan and Esau. Even the Catholic Church promotes race-mixing today, thanks to the Jewish takeover of the Papacy in 1963, under the auspices of the Freemason, John XXIII. These false priests are the very “wolves in sheep’s clothing,” whom Yahshua warned us about.

The sheeple of Judeo-Christianity have been deceived by the false teachings of the “Christian” Zionists, who are nothing but Satan’s ministers, deceiving the whole world with their distortions of God’s Holy Word, the Bible. Their gullible followers have become Jesus Christ’s worst enemies; and they understand it not!!! They have been utterly bamboozled by the Jewish version of the “gospel,” which is “salvation by race-mixing.” Everywhere you go, these wretchedly confused sheeple believe that race-mixing is acceptable and that all of the world’s problems will be solved when the White Race no longer exists. Since the French Revolution, the Rothschilds and other Jewish banking families have financed war and revolution against White Christendom, using the Illuminati, Freemasonry, Communism, Zionism, and the United Nations.

Satan’s children, the Jews, who are the descendants of Cain, Canaan, and Esau, are doing a delicious job of continuing the legacy of their forefathers and their ultimate father, Satan himself (John 8:44), in trying to destroy True Israel. Indeed, the Curse of Canaan is still with us. It is called Judaism; and its bastard child is “Judeo-Christianity.”

By assuming the name of Israel, these descendants of the Canaanites, the Jewish people, have fooled generations of scholars, who are paid to make babble out of what is really very simple: the Blood Feud between Adam/Israel and the Canaanite Jews, predicted at Genesis 3:15. True Christianity has been hijacked by Satan’s disciples, who call themselves “Christians.” Once these facts are understood, only then can we appreciate the Luciferian cunning, deceit and subtlety of the Jewish rabbis. They have done their father proud! And their mother, Semiramis, Nimrod’s temple prostitute wife, the Great Whore of Babylon, is beaming with admiration!

Fortunately, we in Identity know that this deception has only a few more years left, before their Empire of Deceit is overthrown by the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

As for me, I can only say, “Come quickly, Lord Jesus.”

They won't teach you this in Sunday school; and if you teach this message in a mainstream church, they will try to kill you!

Yah bless,

Pastor Eli James
